

Louise Triggiani
Auburn
LD 667

“Freedom is not defined by safety. Freedom is defined by the ability of citizens to live without government interference.”

- Ron Paul

This is such a true statement, we do not need more government surveillance and this bill is intended to do exactly that. I do not think government needs to infringe on our rights any more than it already has.