

Cecilia Ritter
Portland
LD 577

Free and reduced lunches for students is how many children of Maine survive. A large population of students do not have access to food outside of school and this is their human right. Food and nutrients are a basic human necessity and denying these kids who don't have any other option is inhumane and cruel.