The law has never once offended me personally. I been arrested and put into the mental ward once when I was younger living in Salt Lake City. I have my reasons; still the law was very polite.

This award and testimony are for Officer Ben Ferland of Bangor Police.

Officer Ferland is an excellent example of how good officers can be excellent psychologists and personal council. I was having problems with the war in Ukraine and Israel; all the killing was getting to my head. Thank you officer Ferland for helping me; talking to me always helps better than anything. Excellent work Bangor Police!

I love Maine!
