

Mandy Winne
Georgetown
LD 1234

Thank you for crafting this legislation. I support this movement as we must protect the brain and neurological development of Maine's youth. Please turn this into law and ban cell phone use at school so children can not only focus on their education, but also have a chance to forge meaningful real-world connections.