

Deborah Hughes
04535
LD 1423

Please follow common sense in opposing 1423. The corporate packaging industry must take responsibility and introduce measures that allow consumers to buy their products without fear of polluting with non compostable materials. And the must be measures in place that allow for tracking their actions and full transparency in disclosure of those actions and results. Most companies place a little triangle on their labels but in fact they are plastic that remain in the ground. It is a false symbol intended to mislead the public!