

Samantha Chappell
Portland
LD 1423

I think we all know that unless producers have to incur the cost of the packaging waste their products produce, they will have no incentive to change their packaging policies in a way that would benefit Maine and our environment. This is not fair to put on consumers as many do not understand, it needs to come from businesses first. Let Maine lead the way on this initiative that truly is imperative for our future. Thank you!