

Brian Libby
South Portland
LD 1202

My children both attend Brown Elementary school and I would like to see them learn more about African American Studies. I feel it is important. When I grew up and went to school, I feel like I didn't get broader view of the world until well into my college years, I'd like my children to have that sense of cultural knowledge earlier in their lives.