

Erin Covey-Smith
Freeport
LD 1423

Maine's pioneering 2022 EPR for packaging law has undergone a public, transparent rule making process with all of the stakeholders. It is on sound footing. Producers need to be responsible for all of the packaging they produce. With Maine's budget shortfalls, I do not want any of my tax dollars going toward cleaning up packaging waste. It needs to be reduced and prevented in the first place, and that is the producers' responsibility.