

Kathy Bordeleau
York
LD 339

My children went to Maine public schools in York Maine. They were not taught about Wabanaki history and culture - and to have the law without a single person funded to get things going is beyond shameful. The Wabanaki were here before we all were, please fund this position.