

Katia Chambers
Belfast
LD 1543

I would love to see a Maine Green School's network. Our future hangs in the balance as we face climate change and the more we can support young people in understanding this threat and addressing it, the better.