

Connie Carter
Orono
LD 1533

I believe that it is critically important to support R1 Research Institution Status at the University of Maine. Graduate students do important research and work to make progress in many areas that affect the well-being of all of us.