

Bernard Cohen
PORTLAND
LD 1570

I would like to stress the importance of maintaining fluoride in our water supply. It is a time tested, safe, and effective way to reduce dental disease in children, and the effects last throughout a lifetime. Let us base our decision on proven science and not doom our next generation of children to the ravages of dental disease. Please keep fluoride in our water supplies.

Bernard Cohen, D.M.D., retired