

Douglas Hylan
Brooklin
LD 1423

The plastics industry has misled us for decades, putting the onus of recycling on us while knowing full well that most of their products were in fact not recyclable. Now we have a world with plastic pollution everywhere - in our soils, water, even in unborn babies.

Ordinary people can't be expected to have a full knowledge of the environmental impacts of every individual type of packaging that producers can scheme up. It's time to make them responsible.