

michael Kozubal Jr.
Washington
LD 1666

I support ranked choice voting. It provides a way for voters to participate in the voting system by supporting their most favored candidates without having to only vote strategically against candidates they dislike. First-past-the-post systems will always reduce voter choice down essentially only two options which similarly reduces voter representation.