

Joseph Polletta
Lebanon
LD 1666

Ranked Choice voting allows for voters to vote according to the policy they most believe in without fear of repercussions of voting for an unpopular candidate and “losing” their vote if that candidate does not succeed. Extending this system towards the positions of governor, senator and representative would allow for more diversity of thought in our most important positions. I would hope that this bill will be passed as it directly empowers our voters to have more choice about who occupies office and represents them locally and at a national scale.