

Ruth Tilley
Holden
LD 1666

Ranked choice voting had been a net positive in the state. Maine has a long and proud history of direct democracy; extending ranked choice voting methods to state races would be in line with our traditional values as a state. Maine voters have time and time again shown their support for this voting method in federal elections and should enjoy the same opportunity as voters for state government. Mainers deserve to have their voices heard!