

B. Kay Shafer
Winslow
LD 1534

I strongly oppose this legislation. It would be devastating for small, individual landlords who keep their rents reasonable. I am one, and I keep my rents below market so I can get and keep good tenants. But when my costs rise, as they have, I must be able to adjust and make a living. These buildings are my retirement. Can't you regulate the abusers without harming people who are responsible landlords?