

Robert Giles
Kennebunk
LD 38

It is simply commonsense to require proof of identity in the form of an approved photo ID be presented when voting in person or by absentee ballot. This is required for many day to day transactions which are far less important than selecting our future leaders. It will help restore confidence in the integrity of our voting system.