I'll share with you my little note,
As you now decide the fate of my vote.
Many years I vote from overseas,
And it goes through like a breeze.
Circumstances don't give me a choice,
Why do you want to take my voice?
As all the big children misbehave,
I respectfully support you to be brave.
Behind the masks some live in fear,
I see the Truth it is Oh so clear.
To expect perfection that's not my right,
Just don't make your decision from a place of fright.
