

Thomas Feerick
Bath
LD 622

The proposed surcharge on vehicles with electric motors is punitive and outsized. The amount of the proposed fee far outpaces what the average driver of a vehicle powered by internal combustion engine pays in gas taxes each year. Crucially, the money raised through this surcharge does not approach accounting for the budget shortfall. Some surcharge might be appropriate, but the amount proposed is unjust.