

Lourdes Tutaine-Garcia
Searsport, ME
LD 1705

A failed life is an expensive life to support through taxes. The best way to prevent a failed life is through education. Those who fail, for whatever reason, to become educated during childhood must have opportunities to be educated as adults. Don't be penny wise and pound foolish. Support Adult Education in whatever way you can or pay for the lack of it through your taxes.