

Jacob Lewia
Skowhegan
LD 1705

As a student taking a college course for the first time in nine years, I found the College & Career Success Coordinator at KVCC very helpful, engaging, and supportive even if the subject they were helping me with was something they weren't all that familiar with. NOT funding this would be a critical mistake for student development and would squander so much untapped potential in today's youth.