

Lynn Thurston
Scarborough
LD 1870

It's obvious fossil fuels and climate change have caused extreme weather changes in Maine and the rest of the world. These climate changes have caused billions, if not trillions, damage to our environment, and people's lives.

The fossil fuel companies have known what they have been doing for years. Shame on them! They should pay for the damage that results from their irresponsible and inexcusable behavior.