

Kyle Jurow
Acton, ME
LD 104

VOTE NO. I'm a caregiver that runs a small family business. I work with my brothers and mother. I can't afford to test every batch, strain, variety, and product I create. This bill will relegate the industry to corporate money in factories. People drive to ME from all the northeast to access the special, cottage industry we have here, don't mess it up