

Elizabeth Parson
Brooklin
LD 1870

Maine communities cannot and should not pay for the damages incurred by Big Oil and it is time to hold these polluters accountable for the damage they have done. Fossil fuels mean more floods, more homes destroyed, more shoreline erosion, and more lives financially adversely affected and / or lost.