

K C
Belfast
LD 885

Five months into 2025, there have already been over 100 mass shootings across America. The idea that schools could be safer by allowing handguns on school campus' is like saying that the best way to decrease traffic accidents is by increasing the number of cars on the road. All the data shows that when there are less guns around there are less incidences of gun violence (intentionally or accidentally). Help protect Maine children by voting no on this bill.