

Lisa Manning
South Portland
LD 1740

The FIRST Robotics program my children participated in when they were in High School was invaluable to their education. They learned skills from knowledgeable mentors that helped them in their higher education and their work life beyond. They learned problem solving and social skills that they continue to use to this day. Funding for these programs is tight and every little bit will help.