

jason kuvaja
bridgton
LD 1620

Im generally in favor of this, with one major caveat. This bill without addressing testing industry issues, is a bad idea. There needs to be very strict ethical, and professional standards and enforcement with "teeth" when it comes to testing laboratories. The cannabis industry has had major problems with unethical labs all over the country, and even in Maine standards have been credibly challenged. This bill without addressing testing industry issues, is a bad idea. A very bad idea.