

Eileen Kreutz
Industry
LD 1870

Climate change is putting our lives as Mainers at great risk. FEMA has been set up taking applications for relief of flood damage costs. The government, state or federal, cannot bear the cost of the ever increasing damage. This super fund is a critical step toward having a way to keep our state afloat. Bring this legislation to a successful vote.