

Janice Rhayem
Kennebec and Lincoln counties
LD 1897

I strongly support this bill and feel sungrown and organic medical cannabis should be accessible to more people. Sungrown farmers in Maine only have the opportunity to turn one harvest per year and should be allowed to cultivate more plants than what is currently allowed. Cutting back on electrical usage is paramount to sustainable agriculture.