

Jennifer Temple
Lincolntonville
LD 1704

Trans people deserve the same dignity and respect as all people. As a cisgender woman and a person of faith, my Unitarian Universalist religion has helped me to understand that all people have inherent worth and dignity. This includes trans people. Let's use the strength of this governing body to address issues impacting all Mainers, such as the lack of affordable housing and food insecurity.