

Richard Lyons
Berwick
LD 104

No. The benefits do not outweigh the negatives. The results for patients like me will be fewer choices of medicine along with a higher price. Testing would have to be significantly cheaper for me to support this bill. Otherwise you're effectively killing our version of microbrews. Please don't limit my medicine, limit my access, or increase the price.