

jake withee
Appleton
LD 104

These changes are very out of touch and will not only hurt small farms but also the patients. This overregulation is not for mainers. This bill won't help but hurt the availability of clean meds once small craft farmers are gone and big commercial companies have a monopoly to serve subpar products!