

Steve French
Bideford
LD 104

This piece of legislature will gut the medical program, forcing out small producers who provide small batch specifically grown cannabis. AU testing program is already a failure. Mandatory testing for medical cannabis will not protect patients in fact long term it will harm them. Putting small growers out of business will just foster a larger black market.