

Samuel Morris
Farmington
LD 1820

LD 1820 – Protect Rights in Adult Use

LD 1820 protects civil liberties and corrects OCP overreach. Forcing businesses to waive constitutional rights, require video surveillance for home deliveries, and jump through endless hoops has gone too far. This bill eliminates abusive mandates and restores fairness. Maine's cannabis program should empower small operators, not subject them to surveillance and intimidation. I urge you to pass this essential reform.