

Stephanie Boulanger
Falmouth
LD 1847

I am against the LD1847 act. I can't stress enough how important the testing procedures of medical cannabis are, not only for the health of the patient but for the quality of the product itself. For medical consumers, cannabis is their medicine and it should be treated with the same dignity and procedures as any other kind of pharmaceutical man made "medicine"