

Dillon Hough
Wells Maine / Firefly Organics
LD 104

I am against the contents of the bill, it will ruin the ability to hunt for new strains without excessive costs to small batch growers who are on the forefront of creativity for strains that eventually end up in the rec spaces. This will dramatically hurt everyone involved in the cannabis industry as a whole and kill much of the industry who is barely afloat to begin with.