

Dustin Colbry
Firefly Organics
LD 1847

Kill LD 1847. Do not implement track and trace and the associated fees on an already financially stressed industry where cost of operations have only increased while the cost of goods sold has declined. The cost of track and trace on the business owners should not be imposed on them to support a study group that is state funded. Is there a study group for alcohol production in the state of Maine that is funded by tax revenue?