

Bridget Sakowski
Lewiston
LD 1337

As a social worker and mental healthcare professional, I see every day the impact of gender discrimination on my clients, our community, and Maine as a whole. The current legal protections provided under the Maine Human Rights act are essential to ensuring the physical, emotional, and financial safety of our neighbors. Our trans and non-binary Mainers deserve the same protection as the rest of us and should not be discriminated against based on their gender. I strongly oppose this bill.