

Karen MacDonald
Westbrook
LD 868

All students should feel safe in all spaces in a public school. This has nothing to do with being a trans student or not. This has to do with having appropriate supervision in these areas, norms established by the educators in charge, and consequences for inappropriate behavior.
That is the real issue.