

jason kuvaja
bridgton
LD 1847

A separate standard of "Pharmaceutical grade" cannabis testing for the highest risk patients might be a way to find compromise on this challenging issue.

You'll hear the industry largely feels the testing standards are illogical and onerous.

Patients at high risk say they want safe tested medical.

Both of these statements can be, and I believe are, true.