

Jonathan Turlick
Casco
LD 1847

My partner and I moved to Maine from Ma. Ma already has testing and has had a number of issues with bad labs and faulty testing. The testing is not protecting the individuals and will put undue strain on small farmers. Maine is not Massachusetts and should take pride in the legacy of supporting grassroots and small business. Maine stands on the trust and partnership among business and people.