

Christopher Ofiesh
Boston, MA
LD 1847

As a medical patient and business owner in the new england cannabis industry, I am strongly opposed to this bill's unnecessary testing and regulations aimed at hamstringing the medical cannabis industry.

Giving out of state corporations an edge over local / in-state businesses in the form of unnecessary testing and regulation is the opposite of what Maine should be doing.