

Sarah Russell
cumberland
LD 1337

I am proud to call Maine my home specifically because of the inclusivity and compassion in the Maine Human Rights Act.

My daughter held several State titles in track and without a doubt we would all support the current Maine Human Rights Act over having a trophy. It's the long game that matters most. Let's continue to be an inclusive and compassionate State.