

Ysanne Bethel
Portland
LD 233

LD 233 discriminates against trans students, which is in violation of state and federal constitutional guarantees of equal protection. It is discriminatory on the basis of sex and is therefore unconstitutional. Barring trans girls from playing sports alongside their peers under the guise of safety is immoral and communities across Maine are better than that.