

Elizabeth Bachelder
North Yarmouth
LD 1432

Gender identity absolutely must remain a part of the Maine Human Rights Act. There can be no clearer evidence of this than the fact that legislators are considering a lengthy list of attacks on trans and nonbinary people today. Human rights should not be subject to the whims of bigots. I oppose this bill.