LD 1432

LD 1432 is a bill testing the waters to further strip rights and pave the way for discrimination on the basis of sex and sexual orientation. Though it's not immediately clear what the direct impacts of removing the terminology of "gender identity" from the Maine Human Rights Act would be, it nonetheless sets a dangerous precedent for federal overreach. Maine needs to resist this overreach each and every time it presents itself. I urge you to vote "Ought not to pass".
