

Linda Reardon
Orrington
LD 868

This should be common sense but is apparently not. We need to protect girls and women period. My son is disabled and competes in World Cup power lifting. This group has divisions for every age weight disability male or female category. If transgenders want to compete quite simply give their own group. But transgenders do not belong in women's bathrooms or locker rooms give them their own