

Audrey Farber
North Yarmouth
LD 1432

This is a targeted attack to make Maine a less-welcoming, more-hostile place. This is not what we or our state stand for, and serves no purpose except to make life harder for our fellow Mainers. There is literally no need to change the Maine Human Rights Act, it is hurting nobody and helping many others. This aggression will not stand.