

chloe geffken
lincolnvile
LD 1432

I am against LD 1432. In what world is it okay to sign off on allowing people to discriminate against particular groups of people period? Just let others live.

I always believed that Maine was a place where people were entitled to live their lives free of harassment, as long as they weren't hurting anyone else.